Jean Lavender died in Lindsay, Ontario, on Feb. 23. She was a founding member in 1956 of the Canadian Music Library Association (a section of CLA), of which she was chair in 1963-64, and then was a CAML member until her retirement in 1983. Born in 1918, Lavender grew up in Winnipeg, attending Kelvin High School, then Wesley College. After completing her

Library Science degree at the University of Toronto, she became a Music Librarian at the Royal Conservatory of Music, and eventually Head Librarian at the Faculty of Music, University of Toronto, where she served until her retirement. She will be remembered with affection and esteem by former students, colleagues and friends. Memorial donations may be made to the Alzheimer Society.
