

Membership News and Announcements

Ed Hysen died peacefully at his home in London, Ontario, on Sept. 29. He was seventy-seven. A longtime CAML member, Ed was founder of Hysen Music Ltd., a London-based national sheet music and book distributor. He also was a musician who performed locally for many years. He played oboe and English horn with the London Symphony Orchestra (now Orchestra London), and was the organist and choir director at Robinson Memorial United Church for over thirty years.

The Inventory of Notated Canadian Music to 1950 is now available on the web site of Clifford Ford Publications at <http://cliffordpublications.ca>. The Canadian Musical Heritage Society and Library and Archives Canada collaborated on this online project, which had been in limbo since 2003 due to lack of funding. At present, 30,000 records are available for browsing.

Books Received

Jazz Anecdotes, Second Time 'Round. By Bill Crow. 2nd ed.; Toronto: Oxford University Press, 2005. 416 pp. $22.95. ISBN 0-19-518795-4

The MacDowell Colony: A Musical History of America's Premier Artists' Community. By Bridget Falconer-Salkeld. Lanham, MD: Scarecrow Press/Rowman & Littlefield, 2005. 480 p., ill. $55.00. ISBN 0-8108-5419-8