

From the President

Greetings, CAML members!

It was a pleasure to see so many of you at our meeting in Montreal. I'm sure you will agree that it was a terrific conference. Merci, Denise, Selima, Farah and Tim, for your hard work in putting together an excellent programme! I know that a lot of your time and energy went into making the local arrangements, and into joint planning with ARMuQ and CUMS. Our tour of Casavant Frères organ factory in Saint-Hyacinthe was a special treat.

I would like, on behalf of the CAML Board, to thank outgoing President Timothy Maloney for his excellent leadership of CAML during the past two years. Tim, thank-you for seeing us through two very successful conferences, for voicing a Canadian perspective at IAML congresses, for keeping our Board on track, and for many other accomplishments. Yours will be a challenging standard to match!

Thanks are also due to outgoing Board member Jana Wyber, for her tireless efforts not only as our Membership Secretary for the past several years, but also as co-creator and co-owner of CANMUS-L, our electronic discussion group. Jana was also instrumental in having the new CAML logo created by Calgary artist, Greg Manley. Many of us admired it at the Annual General Meeting in Montreal, and we look forward to its appearance on our Newsletter masthead. Best wishes in your new career, Jana; we shall miss your creative and energetic presence in CAML, and hope that you will keep in touch.

Cheryl Martin, our new Newsletter Editor, has been especially busy wearing two hats this spring, as she prepared to hand over her Treasurer's duties. Thank-you, Cheryl, for doing an exemplary job of taking care of CAML's finances! Your expertise and experience on the Board will be invaluable to me, as rookie President, in the coming year.

Finally, I would like to extend a warm welcome to Desmond Maley, our new Membership Secretary, and to Janice Coles, our new Treasurer. I am looking forward to a stimulating and rewarding year of work with the new CAML Board.

Kirsten Walsh
President
