

FROM THE EDITOR

As Tim has announced in this issue, I have agreed to take over the position of Newsletter editor. Since I will also be the Treasurer until the AGM in June, my appointment won't be official until then, but I'm working on this issue of the Newsletter with Kathleen McMorrow's assistance.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who made my four years as Treasurer both interesting and enjoyable, especially Sister Louise Smith (my predecessor as Treasurer), Jana Wyber, and our auditor, Sam Marinucci.

When I agreed to take on the task of Newsletter editor for the next two years, I felt a bit daunted by it all. It's difficult to take over any position from someone who's done it for years, especially a task such as this. I'm grateful for the confidence that the Board has expressed in my abilities, and I hope that I'm able to continue Kathleen's excellent work and produce a quality Newsletter which is reasonably timely and informative.

I hope that all of you who expressed some interest in helping with the Newsletter will not disappear. I know who you are, and I'm going to need some help with this! There will be a meeting about the Newsletter at the CAML conference, and I hope that anyone who has ideas or would like to help will be able to attend. If you won't be at the conference, please contact me if you'd like to help with articles, reviews, or editing. I especially need assistance from someone who can translate news items, or provide abstracts of articles in either English or French.

RETIREMENT/RETRAIT: Maria Calderisi
