LATE-BREAKING NEWS

1. Pat Kellogg has been recently elected president of the CBC Managers' Association.

2. The retrospective national bibliographic project, the first segment of which is Canadiana 1867-1900, is being expanded to include music. This major national microform project is being produced by The Canadian Institute for Historical Microreproductions (CIHM) and underwritten by a grant from the Canada Council.

3. FOR THOSE PEOPLE WHO ARE STAYING ON IN OTTAWA AFTER THE CAML MEETING:

   Wednesday, June 2

   Possibilities:

   (1) Tour of National Library.

   (2) 9:30 a.m. - William Earl Caplin. "The expanded Cadential Progression."

   * * * * * * * * * * * *