

LATE-BREAKING NEWS

1. Pat Kellogg has been recently elected president of the CBC Managers' Association.
2. The retrospective national bibliographic project, the first segment of which is Canadiana 1867-1900, is being expanded to include music. This major national microform project is being produced by The Canadian Institute for Historical Microreproductions (CIHM) and underwritten by a grant from the Canada Council.
3. FOR THOSE PEOPLE WHO ARE STAYING ON IN OTTAWA AFTER THE CAML MEETING:

Wednesday, June 2

Possibilities:

- (1) Tour of National Library.
- (2) 9:30 a.m. - William Earl Caplin. "The expanded Cadential Progression."
10:15 - Zoltan Roman. "The Songs of Pauline Viardot."
11:15 - Geoffrey Payzant. "Some byways of Hanslick research."

* * * * *